Registration: The China Forum is limited to a manageable number of participants to ensure that each has the opportunity to experience the full impact of the program. To reserve a place at the program, a deposit of $5,000 is required. The International Forum is by invitation and is designed for senior executives of global businesses and leaders of global organizations.

Fees: The fees include accommodations during the Forum at first class hotels, meals, other services, and expenses associated with the program. Participants are responsible for the cost of their own transportation to and from the program and other out-of-pocket costs.

Withdrawals and Substitutions: By signing below you are committing to attend this program. Because The International Forum makes commitments well in advance, incurring costs that are largely fixed, The International Forum makes limited refunds to registrants who must withdraw. Participants unable to attend the Program may send a substitute only if the substitute holds a similar level of responsibility and approval is obtained in advance from The International Forum. In the event that a participant must cancel participation for whatever reason, the following terms apply: full refunds less $500 will be made up to and including October 31, 2005. Between November 1, 2005 and March 1, 2006 a 50% refund will be given. No refund will be given for cancellations made after March 1, 2006.

In the event of unfavorable international conditions such as political upheaval, military conflict, terrorist activities, or other unforeseeable circumstances, which would cause concern about the safety of participants at the location of a Forum, The International Forum reserves the right to reschedule any given seminar and/or to hold it at an alternate location.
